

I. VOCABULARY

Directions: Repeat after your tutor and understand.

1. Loquacious (adj.)

2. Deleterious (adj.)

3. Levity (n.)

4. Pragmatic (adj.)

5. Exacerbate (v.)

6. Livid (adj.)

7. Deplore (v.)

8. Sagacious (adj.)

9. Lofty (adj.)

10. Candid (adj.)

II. Sample Sentences.

Repeat after your tutor and make your own sentences using the italicized word.

1. Last night we had a loquacious dinner guest.
2. Here, we consider the potentially deleterious effect of this oscillation on the qubit rotation.
3. The captain used levity to reduce the seriousness of the mortal wounds that wounded the soldier sustained
4. In the early years, a pragmatic approach was taken to public sector reform.
5. Can vouchers be fair, or do they exacerbate existing inequalities?
6. Fear turned his cheeks livid for a moment.

7. To deplore the present state of morality.
8. The consummate beauty of New Hampshire's mountainous terrain is a manifestation of Nature's sagacious truth.
9. You should not treat someone to a lofty manner.
10. And the text is remarkably candid about the way to achieve success.

III. Fill-in the blanks

Choose the words below to make a complete sentence.

exacerbate

deleterious

livid

pragmatic

loquacious

levity

deplore

sagacious

lofty

candid

1. He sipped it with relish and soon became somewhat _____.
2. I am interested to see if purging of _____ alleles by selection is occurring in captive populations.
3. The happy audience strolled back out into the stormy night feeling much _____ in comparison to the evenings heavy weather.
4. This type of voice is therefore analyzed as _____ in nature.
5. Cannabis use may also _____ existing mental health problems.
6. The _____ strawberry mark was there for all to see.
7. Boers deeply _____ the death of their good friend.
8. As children, we all thought our uncle to be very wise because he would always ask such _____ questions.
9. The parish church, dedicated to the Holy Trinity, stands on a _____ eminence.
10. He also took the moment to be very _____ about his divorce from wife Yvette.

IV. Talk Freely

1. What comes to your mind when you hear the word “loquacious”?
2. What are the things that could possibly made you livid?
3. What do you think are the things that can cause one person to exacerbate?
4. Do you like candid person? Why or why not?
5. Ask your tutor about his/ her idea about pragmatic approach.